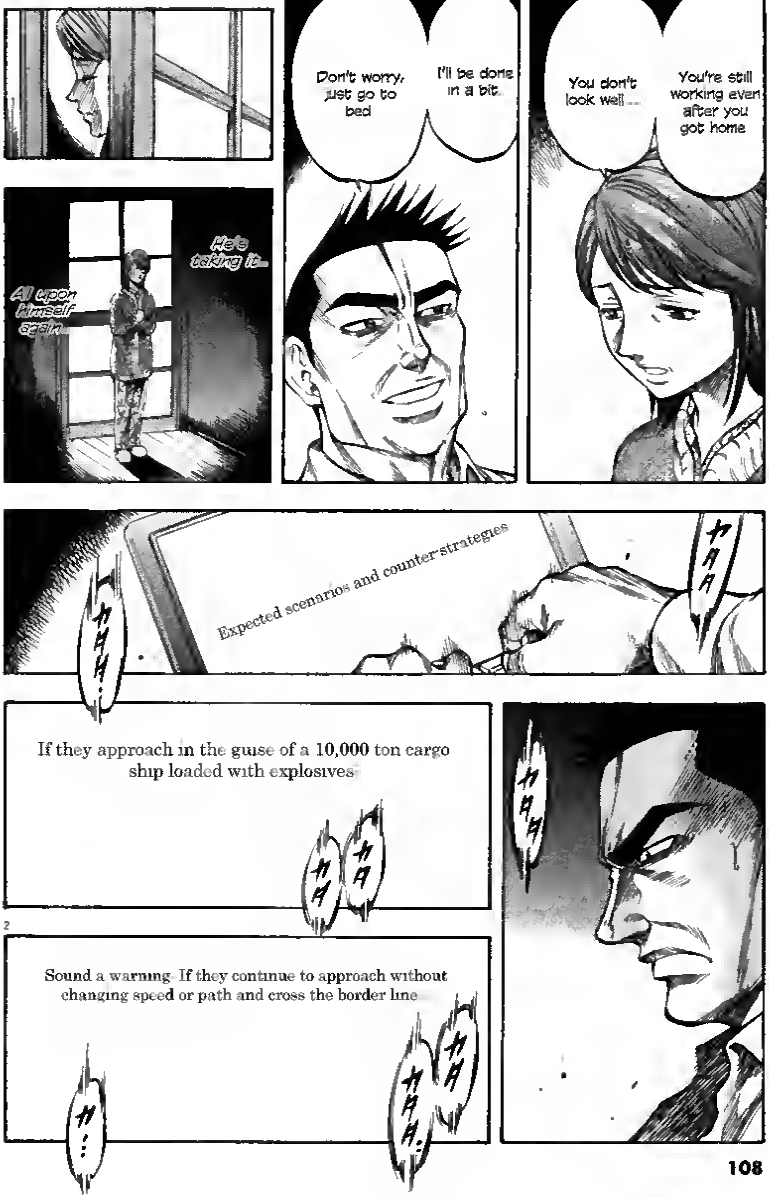
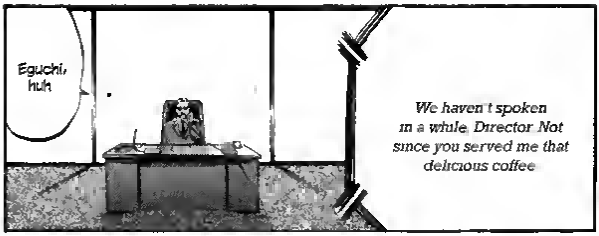
It is very likely that North Korea will try to interfere in some way.
When work on raising the boat starts...
We have to take the worst-case scenarios into account.
Are you still up, dear?
Yeah, sorry. Did I wake you?

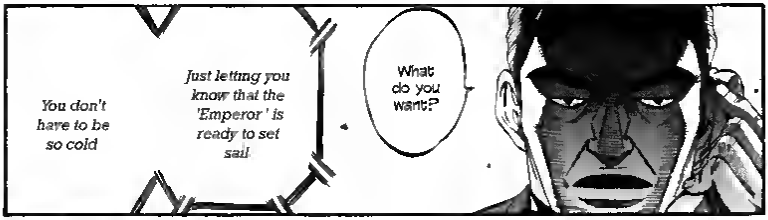


You're still working even after you got home
You don't look well...
I'll be done in a bit
Don't worry, just go to bed
He's taking it...
All upon himself again
Expected scenarios and counter-strategies
If they approach in the guise of a 10,000 ton cargo ship loaded with explosives
2
Sound a warning. If they continue to approach without changing speed or path and cross the border line

We will be forced to ram them with a PLH class patrol ship.
Ram them
What...
What the hell am I writing?
Chapter 104
第104話 最悪のシミュレーション
The Worst-case Simulation



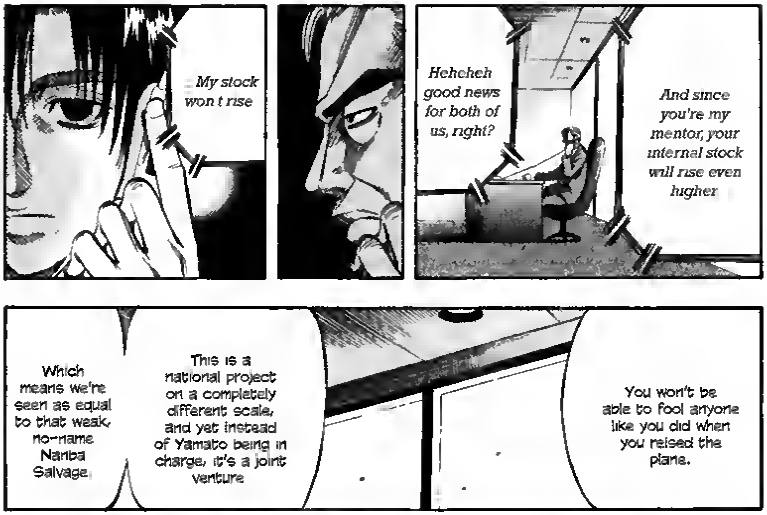
Eguchi, huh
We haven't spoken in a while, Director. Not since you served me that delicious coffee



You don't have to be so cold
Just letting you know that the 'Emperor' is ready to set sail
What do you want?

Haha.
I'll bring that thing up, just you wait.

If that sunken boat blows up, I might even die.
...That would be wonderful.
YAMATO



My stock won t rise
Hehcheh good news for both of us, right?
And since you're my mentor, your internal stock will rise even higher
Which means we're seen as equal to that weak, no-name Nanba Salvage.
This is a national project on a completely different scale, and yet instead of Yamato being in charge, it's a joint venture
You won't be able to fool anyone like you did when you raised the plane.

What an utter humiliation for Yamato
But if you fail your name will be mud
Even if you survive and succeed on the job, your reputation won t benefit
Heh heh
The majority of executives agree with ma on this
And this only happened because you've fallen behind Nanba several times

Try your best ..
Not to end up as Nanba's maidservant!
!!

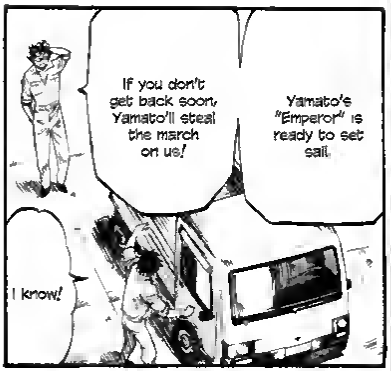
Me, a servant?
Me, falling behind Nanba?

It's all because they choose him instead
Sawa-mura, Kasai...

I'm going to see for myself...
Just what kind of man you are!
難波
Nanba...
麟太郎!!!
Rintarou!



If you don't get back soon, Yamato'll steal the march on us!
Yamato's "Emperor" is ready to set sail.
I know!

All right, I'm off!

So apart from paying bills, I've got to let a lot of people know we'll be away...
We'll be gone from Moji from a while...

Then I have to pay Motoyasu Industries.
First I've got to go settle the bill at Yuuki Marine Goods.

Maaya-chan?!
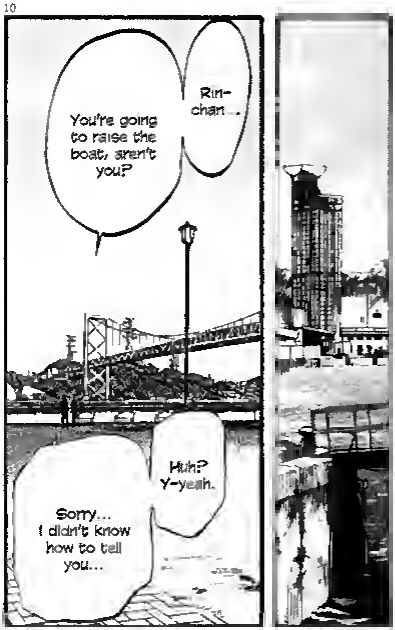
Oh.

I bought some sacred wine for the altar
Evidently someone drank all we had
Where is the boss?
You're our savior!
He's gone to pay bills and see a couple of people. He'll be back soon



Rin-chan...
You're going to raise the boat, aren't you?
Huh? Y-yeah.
Sorry... I didn't know how to tell you...

Hmm
C'mon, just a bit!

Yeah
I've made up my mind!
No matter what, huh?
You're going to go—

11

Hahaha! You don't have to go that far.
I'll come back safe and--
チャラ!
Here—
Think of it as a protective charm.

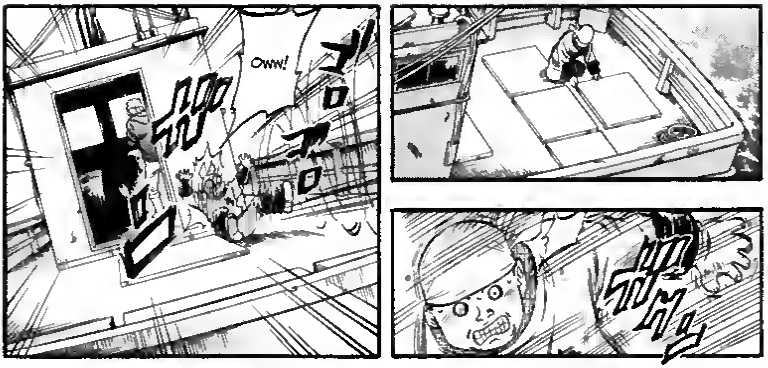
I'm sorry
I'm sorry!

What's this?
I tried to predict every possible scenario and plan for it. If anything happens, follow what's written in this manual.
Good
Yuminaga, could you go there on my behalf?
Chief Kasai, Yamato and Nanba Salvage are both ready to set sail.

10 vessels?! Can we do that?!
I've already gotten permission.

Of 10 vessels, large, small and medium, to the site!
The Coast Guard is going to send a fleet...

If we want Yamato and Namba's work to succeed...
We'll need to show at least that much determination!
OCT 26TH
50KM OFF THE AMAMI ISLANDS



Oww!
Hey, are you listening to me?!
What was that for?!
Dammit, Dad!

15

Wha...
The waves suddenly got higher...
Wah!

WHA...
WHAT THE HELL IS THIS?!

PL15
